Despre mine

I am passionate about artistic literature and have read a dozen of books in English and Russian, especially classics. I am highly communicative and sensitive to other's needs, ensuring that everyone is feeling comfortable and heard.

I consider myself adaptable and punctuate as I've learned to maintain my studies and combine it with my other hobbies and extracurricular courses in IT. Also, I am willing to learn and get better at my job, considering there's always room for growth.
